Health Services Scholarship Program update

The Health Services Scholarship Program was created (by 2019 Act 9, § 39.465, Wisconsin State Statutes.) to encourage health services professionals to practice in Health Shortage Areas in the State of Wisconsin. HEAB will award students studying to become dentists, primary care physicians, and psychiatrists scholarships equal to $30,000 each for every academic year in which they apply and are eligible.

HEAB will award students studying to become physician's assistants and nurse practitioner's scholarships equal to $25,000 each for every academic year in which they apply and are eligible. Scholarships will be awarded based on the United States postmark date of the application. Scholarships are available for up to four years. HEAB will be accepting nominations in November and begin processing awards in December. More information is available on our website.
